HISTORY DAY PLANNED FOR MAY 9TH

Mark your calendar for Saturday, May 9 for the 7th Annual History Day! The celebration will take place in King Street Park in Northumberland, 10am – 4pm. This family fun event will take you back in time to experience the days of canals, tea parties, open hearth cooking, folk music, and more.

Northumberland is full of remarkable history. Not only is Northumberland home to Joseph Priestley; it also boasts a wealth of railroad and canal history. Did you know that Northumberland was one of the most preeminent canal towns in Pennsylvania, with three canals coming together at the basin? Canals became extremely valuable in the early days of transportation, cutting the cost of freight by nearly two thirds! The canal history of Northumberland will surely not be forgotten at this event. Stop by to see Captain Mick and watch his canal history slide show at 11am and 2pm in the Christ United Methodist Church. The Muncy Historical Society's packet boat will also be on display. The PA Canal Society will be on hand to answer any questions you have on the canals.

There will be a variety of live demonstrations including the Victorian high wheelers, chair caning, needlepoint, muzzle loading, a blacksmith, and soap making. In addition to the live demonstrations, there will be plenty of displays to peruse as well. There will be railroad artifacts, local farm history, outhouse artifacts, pre-war bicycles, WWI and WWII artifacts, and the Furmano's Food Display. Quilts will also be on display; including the 1976 Northumberland bicentennial quilt. John Moore will be exhibiting with his books and 1750's storytelling. The Fort Augusta Regiment and 1750's re-enactors will also be a sight not to miss! Be sure to check out the Strolling 19th Century Flea Circus & Snake Oil Medicine Show!

There will be numerous activities throughout the day for everyone to enjoy...

1850s English Tea Party will feature delicacies such as scones, lemon tea cakes, shortbread cookies, and cucumber sandwiches, just to name a few.

Children's Colonial Crafts & Games, free

Buggy rides with the Mifflinburg Buggy Museum, free for children

Portrait Boards, free for children

Be sure to bring your appetite, because History Day just wouldn't be complete without all of the great homemade food! This year's specials will be chicken corn soup, beef brisket sandwiches, huluski, ice cream, and baked goods. History Day will even bring back old favorite sodas like sarsaparilla, birch beer, and cola.

STIMULUS FUNDING

The Borough staff attended a recent webinar for municipal officials regarding the use of stimulus funds and the application process. Borough staff will be using this information to pursue all available programs. Earlier this year, the borough replied to a request from the Northumberland County Planning Commission for a list of shovel-ready projects. The county list was compiled at the request of Senator Chris Carney. Most recently, the Northumberland Police department applied to the COPS program for an additional officer.

The official federal site is www.recovery.gov and the official PA site is www.recovery.pa.gov. Numerous websites provide information regarding stimulus funds. We urge everyone to be cautious when searching for stimulus funding information.

Hundreds of stimulus scams have sprung up, please keep in mind that direct payments to individuals are extremely limited and no action is necessary on your part. Any direct payments to individuals will come through official government channels. If you think you may be eligible for a direct payment, please consult the official PA website for more information. NO application fees are required to apply for funding requests.

JOINT COMPREHENSIVE PLAN UPDATE

The Planning Commissions of Northumberland and Point Township hosted a public meeting to review the Northumberland/Point Township Joint Comprehensive Plan. At the conclusion of the meeting, the Commissions voted to approve the plan. The next step is a 45-day public review period during which residents and other governmental bodies are able to submit comments and questions to the Borough Council and Board of Supervisors. At the conclusion of the review period, the Borough Council and Board of Supervisors will hold a public hearing. The date of the public hearing will be advertised in the Daily Item and posted on the Borough website www.northumberlandborough.com.

Copies of the plan are available for review at the Borough Office, the Point Township Building and the Priestley-Forsyth Memorial Library and online at www.northumberlandborough.com.

Residents are encouraged to review the plan and voice their comments. Written comments are due at the Borough or Point Township offices by May 22nd. All comments will be reviewed by the Borough and Township officials prior to the plan's adoption so any comments with significance may be included in the plan.

With the finalization of the comprehensive plan, the participating communities will have a blueprint for future

JOSEPH PRIESTLEY HOUSE

In early March, the PA Historic & Museum Commission released a plan for its future. The plan recommended discontinuing operations at the Priestley House. While the report did not recommend a date, it could possibly be as early as July 1st. The deadline means Priestley House supporters have very little time to develop an alternative plan. More than 100 supporters of the museum attended a public meeting on April 9th.

Borough officials have sent letters of support to Senator Gordner, State Representative Merle Phillips, Museum Director Barbara Franco, and Governor Edward Rendell.

NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH PROGRAM

Neighborhood Watch Programs have proven to be one of the most effective means available for keeping crime out of neighborhoods. This program enlists the active participation of residents in cooperation with local police departments to reduce the incidences and fears of the crime in our community.

Recent acts of vandalism within the Borough of Northumberland have motivated residents to form The Northumberland Borough Neighborhood Watch program.

As some of you may be aware, a neighborhood watch meeting was held on April 2nd. Approximately, 60 citizens attended the first meeting, which we think is a great turn out considering the short notice and minimal advertising done for the meeting. Don't worry...it's not too late if you would like to participate. A second meeting is scheduled for May 7, 2009 at 7:00 p.m. at the Savoy at 221 Front Street. No registration is required. If you cannot attend the meeting but would like information on the program and how you can get involved, call the Borough office at 473-3414. I hope to see you there!

Yours In Public Service,

Frank Wetzel, Chairman
Public Safety Committee

MAYOR'S THANK YOU

Thank you to all who came out to the meeting on April 9, 2009 to support the Joseph Priestley House. Being a community that takes great pride in its historical roots, the possible closure of this historical landmark would be a great loss for Northumberland. The Priestley House brings history and science alive for all ages. If you were unable to have your voice heard at the recent meeting please contact those in charge of the State's budgetary matters. The addresses are to the right. Any future meetings will be put on the borough's web site. Thank you again and keep praying.

YUCK ! EWWWW! PHEW!

That is what we say when we see doggie doo doo on the sidewalk or on the grass by the curb!! Instead we should be saying "RUDE", "INCONSIDERATE", and "UNACCEPTABLE".

Lately it has been noted that there is a considerable amount of dog feces showing up along our streets. It appears that some dog-walkers are not cleaning up after their pets. Failure to do so can result in citations. Dog owners are responsible for not only keeping the excrement off the public sidewalks but also out of their yards, too. Other people do not want to look at it, and with warmer weather on the way, they don't want to smell it either! Please be considerate!

ZAP!! PRIESTLEY HISTORY CAMP TO BE ELECTRIFIED!

Have you ever wondered what life was like before light bulbs? Join us at Summer History Camp 2009 from July 29-31, 9:30 am to 12 Noon each day. To compliment the PHMC's 2009 Interpretive Theme: "Energy: Innovation and Impact", history campers at Priestley House will explore daily life in the days of Joseph Priestley and his friend Benjamin Franklin, and see how those "electric friends" changed the way people thought about and used energy. Tour the Priestley House, help Joseph Priestley in his laboratory and make a kite with Ben Franklin! Call 570- 473-9474 to request registration materials.

The fun doesn't stop there! Northumberland County Historical Society will host their Summer History Camp at the Hunter House on August 3-5 from 9 AM to 2 PM each day. Campers will learn about "Children of the Fort". For more information, call the Society at 507- 286-4083.

COMMUNITY PRIDE WEEK - MAY 11 TO MAY 16, 2009!

The Northumberland Point Township Revitalization committee is planning a weeklong clean-up! We are hoping that residents will make an effort to spruce up the community by pitching in.

We can begin by looking around our own homes to see if there are some things that we can do to create a better environment for us all. They can be simple things like picking up litter, removing dead plants and planters, trimming brush, stowing the winter gear, or preparing our porches for warmer weather enjoyment.

In order to increase participation, we are hoping to get volunteers involved who are willing to help others complete their chores. We will be calling upon our church youth groups, scout troops, and other organizations to ask for their help. While we cannot provide professional services, we can hopefully find laborers.

If you need some simple projects to be completed, you can call the borough office and we will try to match you up with the appropriate volunteers. It is our hope that this could turn into an annual project that will grow into more services provided. Keep watching. If you can help, please call 473-3414.

Fun in the SUN! Why spend your day at home, sweating in front of a fan, when you could be at the largest swimming pool in the area! Liberty Splashland, at the corner of 2nd and Prince Streets, has not only the largest pool but the only drop slides and the only Dump Tower Dumping bucket in the area. Let's not forget the Splash Zone spray ground, the diving board, the sand volleyball court, the swimming tubes and nearly 100 lounge chairs. Why would you want to stay at home?

I've got my own pool, you say. As a matter of fact, if you have your own swimming pool you will probably spend more on chemicals than a family season pass costs. Once you add in the Liberty Café where you can get good food for not a lot of cash, a family season pass for only $150 (just $135 until May 16th) could be the most economical way to go. Season passes for individuals are just $80 ($72 until May 16th).

Daily rates remain the same as last year: general admission is $4, seniors are $2 and kids 5 and under are free!

Consider Liberty Splashland when planning a birthday party. Hold your party during normal business hours or you can rent the entire park for a very reasonable rate.

Don't miss this season's volleyball tournament; sign up at the park once we have opened. Mark your calendar - opening day is June 1st and as always admission is free.

The Pennsylvania Recreation and Park Society, Inc. (PRPS) has selected Greg Carl of Northumberland as the winner of its annual Volunteerism Award. ## JUMPING INTO SPRING WITH NEW LEADERSHIP

After a long search, the Priestley-Forsyth Library has a new director. C. Lynn Williams, comes to the Priestley-Forsyth from the James V. Brown Library in Williamsport, PA where she was employed as the Assistant Youth Services Librarian/School-Library liason since 2000. With her, she brings experience, energy and a passion for librarianship.

Lynn has a background in theatre arts and education as well having her MLS. Lynn laughingly notes, "I spent many years on a stage in front of audiences, never in my wildest dreams would I have thought how valuable that experience would be becoming a librarian. We are anticipating some great things and lots of fun. Do drop in and say hello."

The library has been busy gearing up for spring and summer featuring some special programs. Monday, April 13th kicked off National Library Week. Patrons were invited to take a number of free giveaways including pencils, bookmarks, coloring sheets and children's books.

Tuesday April 14th the library hosted Susan Trego and a program on her recent trip to Israel. The presentation included photos, a souvenir display and her cultural experiences. The attendees were treated to a dessert buffet provided by Townside Garden Cafe.

Saturday, April 18th kicked off Pennsylvania's One Book Every Young Child program with a Penguin Parade in King Street Park. As well as having penguin related activities, families were given activity bags, snacks and goodies. The book for this year is entitled If I Were a Penguin by Florence Minor. Children were given a free copy of the book during the celebration. It is the goal of organizations such as the Early Care & Education Coalition of Susquehanna Valley United Way, Pennsylvania Library Association, and Public Libraries to work at getting quality books into the hands of every child in the state.

Wednesday, April 22nd guest speaker Lana Golden, frequent library patron and supporter, presented an adult program on Earthwatch. Earthwatch Institute engages people worldwide in scientific field research and education to promote understanding and action necessary for a sustainable environment. All enjoyed her talk over a delightful lunch provided by Townside Garden Cafe.

Do you have your bidding hands ready? Derby Day, Priestley-Forsyth's community fund-raiser is May 2nd. As always the event is guaranteed to be fun filled and there are great items to be had. Held at Nottingham Retirement Center, the auction takes place in the Great Room. Light refreshments enhance the evening. The event begins at 4pm with a silent auction. Guests are then entertained with an enthusiastic and highly animated auctioneer, namely, Priestley-Forsyth Library's Board President, Michael Nailor. Tickets can be purchased at the library for a $10.00 donation. Call the library at 473-8201 for more information. We look forward to seeing you there.

June will be here before you know it and with it comes Summer Reading 2009. This year's theme, entitled Be Creative @ Your Library, focuses on the fine arts. Did you know that by reading as few as 8 books over the summer, you can prevent your child from losing many of the skills they learned in school during the year? Come visit us at the library and learn more about why a summer reading program is important for your children.
